

Welcome

to Your Action Planner for “Fire Your Way to Success.”

Please save a copy of this document to your device before you fill in the questions.

Part VI: Fire Yourself

- Write down what vacation or break you want to take next.

- What do you want to get done by your next vacation? How do you envision your company to run without your presence?

- What kind of boundaries do you have in place? Does your staff know what your boundaries are?

- Write down your vision for a company that can stand on its own?

- Why is that important for you? What will you be able to do when you have more free time? What are your dreams and aspirations?

Thank you for joining me on this course, and congratulations for completing it!
